DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 36 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. There are 4 statutory categories of invention which include process, machine, article of manufacture, and composition of matter. A "software arrangement" is not a process, machine, manufacture or composition of matter. Also, the claim does not establish a practical application of the invention which establishes a useful, concrete, and tangible result. The usefulness of the "software arrangement" cannot be realized as embodied in the claim, i.e. there is no tangible result.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 6, 22, 24-26, 30, 38-41 are allowed.
